

Dr. Fuad Iskandarov

Diplomatic Rank: Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary

Born: 6 August 1961, Baku, Azerbaijan
Marital status: Married with son and daughter, born in 2001
Citizenship: Azerbaijan
Languages: Azeri: native language; Russian, English, Turkish.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE:

February 22, 2007 – present

Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary of the Republic of Azerbaijan to the Kingdom of the Netherlands;
Permanent Representative of the Republic of Azerbaijan to the Organization for the Prohibition of Chemical Weapons (OPCW)

June 2006 – February 2007

Ambassador-at- Large of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Azerbaijan,
Secretary-General of the National Commission for UNESCO of the Republic of Azerbaijan

January 2002 - May 2006

Deputy Minister of National Security for political affairs (information and analysis, foreign relations, participation in antiterrorist coalition etc.)

April 1995-January 2002

Head of the Department of information and analysis, Ministry of National Security of the Republic of Azerbaijan

1986 - 1995

- Military service

TEACHING AND SCIENTIFIC ACTIVITY:

February 2000 – February 2003

- Part-time lecturer at the Chair of International Relations, Faculty of International Relations and International Law, Baku State University

November 1983 – February 1986

- Post-graduate scientific researcher and assistant-professor at the Chair of Political Economy, Azerbaijan State Economic University

February 1984 – June 1985

- Part-time lecturer at the Chair of Theory of translation, Azerbaijan University of Languages

EDUCATION AND TRAINING COURSES:

January 2006

Seminar on the Role of National Military Strategy, George C. Marshall European Center for Security Studies

July 2002

Executive courses on legislation, U.S. Department of State, U.S. Department of Justice

May 2001 – June 2001

Black Sea executive program, J.F. Kennedy School of Government, Harvard University

November 1999

Executive Training Program on Crisis Management, International Law-Enforcement Academy, Budapest, Hungary

September 1978 – June 1983

Institute of International relations and International Law, Kiev National University

- Bachelor Degree in International Economic relations
- Bachelor Degree in English interpretation

September 1968 – June 1978

Secondary school 174 (Baku)

Other:

- Orders and medals awarded for excellent services in Military and Diplomacy by the President of the Republic of Azerbaijan
- Member of different governmental interagency commissions and working groups, including:
 - Interagency working group for cooperation with NATO (2002-2006)
- Co-author of numerous publications concerning political science